

	PAGE
The Primate interferes; Oxford resists, June 1382	304
« » *	307
The King supports the Primate	310
Triumphal entry of the Bishops into Oxford, Nov. 1382	312
The House of Commons saves Lollardry in the country districts	313
Material on which the Lollards worked	314
*	322
Wycliffe at Lutterworth, 1382-4	327
The Lollards of Leicestershire.....»	329
The LoUards of the Western Counties	331-2
The Lollards of the Capital.....	331-2
, .....327
Proceedings of the Lollards in Parliament, 1395	*
, Richard rescues the Church . . . , . , , ,	327
	329
The Age of Wycliffe; temporary failure
331-2

CHAPTER IX

THE LATEB HIBTOKY OF THE LOEiLABDS, 1400-1520

The struggle embittered under Henry the Fourth	333
"The first martyrs. Purvey and Badby at the stake.	884
Oldcastle and his rebellion, 1414	836
"Patronage of the gentry withdrawn	339
Persecution and martyrdom; Lollardy spreads to new districts, 1420-60	341
Bishop Pecock; obscurantist policy of the Church authorities	344
Increase of martyrdoms under Henry the Seventh	347
Lollardy becomes Lutheranism, 1520	349
Service done to England by Wycliffe and the Lollards	350
"Freedom of thought in England	852
NOTE	*
858-4
APPENDIX	» « „ , , « ,
855-70
INDEX	• « « , , , . , , , , , , ,
	871

MAPS.

Map to illustrate the events of June 12-15, 1381 . . .
to face p. 228
Area of the Risings of 1381 . . . , . . . » fl

254

Lollardry in England and Scotland

*

»

*

,

w

862